

5 Good Reasons To Let Us Review Your Insurance Coverage.

- Let us review your coverage if:
- 1. You were provided a homeowner quote without anyone seeing your home. Guessing at the coverage limits will not provide you with the security you expect and demand.
 - 2. You want piece of mind in the event of a bad auto accident more than 50 miles from home. The right coverage ensures you, or loved one, wouldn't have to drive home afterwards – in fact, you could be covered for meals, hotel, and phone calls up to $3,000. That's how to make the most of a bad situation.
 - 3. You have valuable items that you feel should get extra special protection? Special limits for valuable items, such as art, silver, jewelry, watches and furs, are much higher under a high value homeowner's policy – and provide you that extra degree of protection, than a regular policy.
 - 4. You want flexible options in the event of severe home damage. If a home (or its contents) is severely damaged, most policies require you to rebuild. Our High Value homeowner's policies will offer you a choice; (1) take the insurance money and sell the land to allow you to buy new or, (2) rebuild. This is a great option for families with young children or those that would like to take the opportunity to down size or relocate.
 - 5. Your homeowner's policy doesn't reflect your lifestyle and character. Your home, and how you live in it should be reflected in your coverage. If you have hobbies, travel or have a home under construction, your policy needs to be customized accordingly. Let us show you how the right policy can protect your way of life.

We specialize in high value homes, antique homes and homes under construction. Allow us to put your policy to the test and show you how these fine points matter.

Likely your most valuable equity, your home needs the best insurance attention. It's what you have invested in and where you likely feel most contented. That value deserves customized insurance coverage carefully crafted to the highest standards. Let our team review and update your coverage to give you the peace of mind you need and deserve.
